Sample Speaker Introductions

Sample 1. General—Applicable to All Audiences

Good (morning/afternoon/evening), I am very excited to introduce you all to our guest speaker today, Mary B. Lucas — author, speaker and people connector.

Mary literally worked her way up the corporate ladder when she began her career as a customer service rep in her hometown of Kansas City and advanced to her current role as Chief Talent Officer for Supplemental Health Care one of the largest healthcare staffing companies in North America. Mary has more than 30 years of industry leadership experience.

In 2006, she published the highly successful book, Lunchmeat & Life Lessons, a motivational memoir and tribute to her father on how to bring out the best in yourself and others. As a result of her book's literary success and loyal readers, she is now a frequently requested speaker for a variety of groups around the country.

Ladies and gentlemen, please join me in welcoming Mary B. Lucas.
